*The Salisbury & Mecklenburg Chapters Invite You to
The Locke Patriots Grave Markings
Saturday, August 20, 2011*

Date: Saturday, August 20, 2011

Time: 10:00am

Where: Thyatira Presbyterian Church (ca. 1747)
220 White Road
Mount Ulla (Salisbury), NC 28125

What: Grave marking for Brig. Gen. Matthew Locke, Col. Francis Locke, Patriot
Commander at Ramsour's Mill, and Maj. John Locke.
(38 of Thyatira's sons served as Patriots in the American Revolution)

Then: Drive to Charlotte (approximately 40 minutes or 30 miles)

Time: 12:30 pm

Where: Golden Corral Restaurant, 7701 N. Tryon Street, Charlotte, NC 28262

What: Social luncheon! Everybody is invited! Pay for your own meal.

Then: 2:00pm

Where: We will drive 0.8 miles to the Locke memorial monument (placed by the Mecklenburg Chapter DAR, on the 131st anniversary of the Battle of Charlotte in 1911), located just off of N. Tryon St.

What: Grave Marking for Lt. George Locke
(killed during the Battle of Charlotte of September 26, 1780)

We will have tents, umbrellas, chairs and bottled water available. At Thyatira Church the Fellowship Hall will be open so that there is access to restrooms.

Thyatira's Heritage Museum will be open. There is a portrait of King George II. On the night of February 1 1781, after the Battles of Cowan's Ford and Torrence's Tavern, Gen. Nathanael Greene wrote in chalk on the back of it: "O George, Hide thy face and mourn." This inscription can still be seen today!
