“Saving Col. Williams”

Join Us for an Exciting Evening with Our Favorite Speaker, Author & Storyteller, Randell Jones!

Learn the true story of Col. Williams

You must attend this last dinner meeting of 2017.

Doors Open at 6:00pm. Dinner at 6:30pm.

He's back! Our favorite acclaimed historian, author and storyteller Randell Jones returns with the truth about the story of “Saving Col. Williams.”

Randell's new story of "Saving Col. Williams" revolves around the SC Militia and the Lincoln County Militia at the Battle of Kings Mountain.

Randell's telling of the story attempts to rectify the differing accounts of the role and motivations of Colonel James Williams with his known character, that of a true and courageous patriot.

Col. James Williams arrived at The Cowpens in command of the South Carolina militiamen and the men he had recruited in North Carolina. Williams was a valiant patriot. He had a long career of service during the Revolution and was one of the three commanders at the Battle of Musgrove's Hill.
